4 hours Coverage

Having 4 hours of coverage is ideal for weekday weddings, civil wedding ceremonies, and intimate weddings.

This is also a good amount of time if you're only looking to have the ceremony and formals photographed, or if you only want the reception shot.

As well as having the four hours of coverage this package also includes:

- full editing of your images
- a Facebook sneak peek
- a password protected online gallery
- digital negatives on a USB
- £80 Print Credit

£595

6 hours Coverage

6 hours of coverage is great for weddings where the ceremony and reception are at one location.

Having 6 hours of coverage is also ideal for small, intimate weddings.

As well as having up to six hours of coverage this package also includes:

- full editing of your images
- a Facebook sneak peek
- a password protected online gallery
- digital negatives on a USB
- £100 Print Credit

£695

8 hours Coverage

8 hours of coverage is great for weddings where the ceremony and reception are at different venues.

8 hours of wedding coverage is great for brides who want pre-wedding coverage, including having the hair and makeup process photographed.

Typically, having hair and makeup coverage usually won't fit in the timeline for anything less than 8 hours.

Having 8 hours of coverage is also ideal for larger weddings.

As well as having the four hours of coverage this package also includes:

- full editing of your images
- a Facebook sneak peek
- a password protected online gallery
- digital negatives on USB -more time=more images!
- £150 print credit

£995

10+ hours Coverage

10+ hours of coverage is great for weddings where the ceremony and reception are at different venues, and for clients who want to go off-location to take some of their images.

10+ hours of wedding coverage is great for brides who want pre-wedding coverage, including having the hair and makeup process photographed.

Typically, having hair and makeup coverage usually won't fit in the timeline for anything less than 8 hours.

Having 10+ hours of coverage is also ideal for larger weddings and ceremonies that will last longer than the average 30 minutes, as well as covering the reception and wedding exit.

As well as having the four hours of coverage this package also includes:

- full editing of your images
- a Facebook sneak peek
- a password protected online gallery
- digital negatives on a USB -more time=more images!
- £200 print credit
